Attendance is mandatory

COME AND SEE WEEKEND

“Ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.” (Matthew 9:38)

Hosted by St. Augustine Seminary in Toronto and St. Peter Seminary in London, a Come and See Weekend offers a special opportunity for men considering a vocation to diocesan priesthood to reflect on the call of God in their lives, immerse themselves in Seminary life and interact with seminarians who can share and witness from personal experience. Two dates are being offered: November 4 to 6 at St. Augustine Seminary and November 25 to 27 at St. Peter Seminary beginning with registration on the Friday evening between 7 and 7:30 p.m. and concluding with lunch on Sunday afternoon at about 2 p.m. The weekend is open to men who are in grade 12 and older. Please feel free to contact the Vocation Office of the Diocese of Hamilton at www.vocationinfo.ca for further information or to register as a participant.

PARENTING TIP OF THE MONTH

Building a relationship with our children provides life time benefits for everyone. One element involved with this is teaching our children our family values; this means being specific about what is and what is not acceptable behaviour. In fact, a survey of 5,500 teenagers done by National Young Drivers Association showed that risky driving behaviour, including not wearing a seat belt, drinking and driving and cell phone use while driving was strongly associated with the way teens and parents communicate and approach rules about safety. Being supportive of our children, setting clear rules and paying attention to where our children are going has measurable positive results in their behaviour.

LITURGY CHANGES COMING —

The words for the Penitential Act have been significantly revised to accurately translate the Latin text. In the first option, commonly known as the Confiteor, we have a return to an older English version of the text – the one used during the experimental period before 1970.

The priest invites all to acknowledge their sins and so prepare themselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries. Then, after a brief silence, all say together:

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The addition of the words: greatly sinned translate the Latin: peccavi nimis, and echo the words of King David who acknowledged his sin before the Lord (1 Chronicles 21.8). The words: through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault, are a direct translation of the Latin: mea culpa, mea culpa, mea maxima culpa. As these words are spoken, all strike their breast once. The word: therefore, in the next line translates the Latin: Ideo. Because we have sinned, we therefore turn to Mary and the saints and seek their intercession before God.

The second option has been recast in English and wonderfully echoes the Scripture texts on which it is based.

Priest: Have mercy on us, O Lord.

All: For we have sinned against you.

Priest: Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

All: And grant us your salvation

The first two lines of the Penitential Act 2 are based on the Book of Baruch 3.2. The second two lines are taken from Psalm 85.8, a text which we use as a Responsorial Psalm during Advent.

The third form of the Penitential Act, which is in the form of a litany, has changed very little and provides a model for additional texts which may be freely composed by the priest.
